River View Estate was offered for the first time in more than 50 years. A 16.5-acre estate that was originally part of President George Washington's famed Mount Vernon Estate, this significant assemblage of waterfront property is located just ten miles from the nation's capital via the tree-lined George Washington Memorial Parkway. The estate is easily accessible from the region's three airports that service both private and commercial aviation. Steeped in American history, River View Estate offers an unrivaled respite into nature, yet is just minutes from the dining, cultural and educational offerings of both Old Town Alexandria, Northern Virginia and Washington, D.C.
